YCAA Director General Duties

The members of the Yuma County Airport Authority Board of Directors are volunteers and members of the local community. Our Board Members include business leaders, aviators and citizens who wish to serve the public good. Directors must be electors and taxpayers of Yuma County and have a deep interest in the promotion of air transportation and the aviation industry in the Yuma region. The Board of Directors meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 4pm, and when required for committee meetings, in the Airport conference room on the second floor of the Terminal.

The specific duties of the YCAA Director are to:

- Attend board and committee meetings and complete board assignments on time
- Contribute positively to board discussions, assisting the board in reaching conclusions
- Prepare for board and committee meetings by reviewing the background information provided by Airport Staff
- Avoid even the appearance of a Conflict of Interest
- Set a good example to the Aviation Community by closely adhering to airport policies
- Accept and publicly support the decisions of the Board
- Acquire a working knowledge of committee assignments

Applicants to the Board of Directors Must:

- Be at least a two year full time resident of Yuma County
- Be a year round resident while serving as Member of the Board of Directors
- Have access to broadband Internet and a current email address
- Must Not be a local, State or Federal elected official.
